What Does the CHURCH Have to Offer Me?

Allen Webster

Many who had left organized religion are coming back. Some who got busy in college and drifted away now have families and want their children to grow up with effective moral and religious training.

Others who consciously left over a difference with a religious leader or a detrimental group have decided to give religion another chance, noting that one bad apple or even a barrelful' doesn't mean apples aren't healthy for us.

Some who've been running the rat race chasing success, significance, salary, and sex are craving something more meaningful. A few who saw spirituality as a do-it-yourself project are warming up to the paint-by-the-numbers plan God has revealed in Scripture.

Some are in the market because they located to a new area or grew dissatisfied with a church because they were not growing spiritually in it or had observed departures from the Bible in it.

You may be one who is wondering, "What does the church offer?" Stated simply, the church of Christ provides the same remarkable "benefits package" today that it has offered mankind since Jesus set it up 1,980 years ago.

PEACE THAT PASSES UNDERSTANDING

Those present on Pentecost lost their peace of mind upon learning that they had contributed to the death of an innocent man. By wicked hands they had crucified the very Son of God (Acts 2:22-23).

Seeking a solution, they inquired, "What shall we do?" (2:37).

Offering divine absolution, Peter responded, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus."

Making a resolution, three thousand were baptized the same day (2:41), whereupon they received the remission of sins, the gift of the Holy Spirit (2:38), and membership in Christ's church (2:47).

Luke records they were glad that day (2:41). When the Ethiopian treasurer was baptized by a roadside, he too "went on his way rejoicing" (Acts 8:39). Acts mentions at least twelve other references to joy in the church.

Paul referred to the mindset that follows forgiveness and continues through the Christian's life as "peace of God which passeth all understanding" (Philippians 4:7).

Many people—perhaps you—long for peace of mind in quiet hours. They struggle with a conscience that speaks up in condemnation of previous decisions and actions. They long for a clean slate and the knowledge that everything is right between them and their Creator.

To them Jesus says, “Come unto me . . . and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28). It’s in the church membership package.

A FREE RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The early church “continued stedfastly in the apostles’ doctrine” (Acts 2:42).

Most Americans value education enough to invest considerable segments of time and thousands of dollars pursuing it. A strong case can be made that Bible instruction is the most important part of a well-rounded education. Theodore Roosevelt said, “A thorough knowledge of the Bible is worth more than a college education.”<sup>2</sup> Paul gave up everything in exchange for knowledge of Christ (Philippians 3:8). The early saints risked imprisonment, endured beatings, and disobeyed their city council to continue to teach and learn (Acts 4:19–20; 5:41–42).

Religious training is often the first reason people give for attending church services. The most popular response to “why do you go to church,” was “for spiritual growth and guidance.” Leading the “Top 13 Reasons that Unchurched People Choose a Church,” were “preaching” and “doctrines.” Fifty-eight percent of youth who remain active in religion do so because they want “the church to guide decisions in everyday life” and fifty percent felt the church “was helping them become a better person.”<sup>3</sup>

Surprisingly, even many atheists are attending church these days. A study conducted by Rice University found that about one of five scientists who claim to be atheist or agnostic attend.<sup>4</sup> Why? The most common reason was so their children could learn values and morals.

One does not need to have children or be an atheist to attend. Since God’s Word is a lamp to our feet and a light to our path (Psalm 119:105), it gives us guidance in decision-making and a strong moral compass to navigate today’s complicated sea of change (Matthew 5:3–12, 28–32; Romans 12:2, 17; 13:1–10; Galatians 5:19–23). Who doesn’t need inspiration and encouragement (2 Corinthians 2:14; Philippians 4:13), motivation to live an altruistic, respectable life (Matthew 16:24); information to build a strong marriage and parenting skills (Psalm 127:1–3; Ephesians 5:22–33); knowledge to cultivate healthy habits and avoid addictions (1 Corinthians 6:12); and principles for good business practices and a well-rounded, happy life? (Matthew 7:12; 1 Peter 3:10).

The church of Christ takes seriously its divine commission to teach. Including classes, sermons, Vacation Bible Schools, and sermon series, a congregation offers about 220 hours of instruction each year. At a typical college per hour rate,<sup>5</sup> that is about $14,310 of free education every year. Thus, a child receives $171,720 worth of education in twelve years; $257,580 by age 18. Adults receive free instruction amounting to $1,073,250 over a lifetime.

Want a free education? Jesus says, “Come . . . learn of me” (Matthew 11:28–29). It’s in the church membership package.

ACCEPTANCE AND COMMUNITY

We are social creatures living in an increasingly impersonal world. Old-fashioned face-to-face interaction is no longer necessary to pump gas, order pizza, deposit into a bank, or a million other common things. Even socializing is done via Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, and chatrooms.

Is it any wonder that loneliness prevails? Thirty percent of Americans say that they have had long periods of painful loneliness; seventy percent don’t even know their neighbors.

Not surprising, the main thing many look for in a church is fellowship. They are looking in the right place. The early church continued steadfastly in fellowship (Acts 2:42). They were together with one accord (1:14; 2:1, 46); had all things common (2:44); and had good rapport with others (2:47). They were together in the temple and from house to house (2:46). They ate together (2:46); they prayed together (2:42).

The church offers the opportunity to connect with a community that shares a lifestyle and values the goals of pleasing God, enjoying life, helping others, and going to heaven.

Longing for friends and participation in something bigger than yourself? It’s in the church membership package.

ACCESS TO THE ETERNAL GOD

They continued in “breaking of bread” and prayers (Acts 2:42).

Imagine an open invitation to come before the president or access to call the governor for a favor at any time. Jesus offers something better in His church: unlimited access to God.

God has a standing appointment with His family on Sundays. His worship is “in the midst of the church” (Hebrews 2:12), when the saints assemble together (Hebrews 10:25), in “spirit and in truth” (John 4:24), decently and in order (1 Corinthians 14:40). He ordains each member a priest authorized to offer spiritual sacrifices (1 Peter 2:5, 9), including their prayers, songs, contribution, love, and praise.

Acceptance in worship and a blank check in prayer? It’s in the church membership package.

Jesus is still accepting new members. Come for a trial, no obligation visit this Sunday.

Endnotes:

<sup>1</sup> This article is no defense of religion in general or Christendom at large. Man-made organized religion is a confused, confusing, and damaging entity. This is an endorsement of simple New Testament Christianity—Christ’s original church—of which I am a member and constantly advocate as God’s solution to a mixed up religious world and searching souls (Matthew 11:28–20; Ephesians 4:1–6).

1,000 Miles an Hour

The earth rotates on its axis at approximately 1,000 miles per hour. If that had been 100 miles per hour, our days and nights would be 10 times longer, and our planet would alternately burn and freeze. Under such circumstances vegetation could not live.

If the earth were as small as the moon, the power of gravity would be too weak to retain sufficient atmosphere for man's needs; but if it were as large as Jupiter, Saturn, or Uranus, extreme gravitation would make human movement almost impossible.

If we were as near to the sun as Venus, the heat would be unbearable; if we were as far away as Mars, we would experience snow and ice every night, even in the warmest regions.

If the oceans were half their present dimensions, we would receive only one-fourth the rainfall we do now. If they were one-eighth larger, our annual precipitation would increase four fold, and this earth would become a vast, uninhabitable swamp.

Water solidifies at 32 degrees Fahrenheit above zero. It would be disastrous if the oceans were subject to that law, however, for then the amount of thawing in the Polar Regions would not balance out, and ice would accumulate throughout the centuries. To prevent such a catastrophe, the Lord put salt in the sea to alter its freezing point.

"And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

A Real Saint

Two brothers had terrorized a small town for decades. They were unfaithful to their wives, abusive to their children, and dishonest in business. The younger brother died unexpectedly. The surviving brother went to the preacher of the local church. "I'd like you to conduct my brother's funeral," he said, "but it's important to me that during the service, you tell everyone my brother was a saint."

"But he was far from that," the minister countered. The wealthy brother pulled out his checkbook. "I'm prepared to give $100,000 to your church. All I'm asking is that you publicly state that my brother was a saint."

On the day of the funeral, the preacher began his eulogy this way. "Everyone here knows that the deceased was a wicked man, a womanizer, and a drunk. He terrorized his employees and cheated on his taxes." Then he paused. "But as evil and sinful as this man was, compared to his older brother, he was a saint!" —Greg Asimakoupoulos, Naperville, Illinois. Leadership, Vol. 16, no. 4.

What We Remember

Mike Wallace of 60 Minutes recently passed away. His son Chris Wallace, Fox News Sunday host, was interviewed for an AP story shortly before his father's death. In that interview Chris explained that his father's health had deteriorated.

"He's in a facility in Connecticut," Wallace said. "Physically, he's okay. Mentally, he's not. He still recognizes me and knows who I am, but he's uneven. The interesting thing is, he never mentions '60 Minutes.' It's as if it didn't exist. It's as if that part of his memory is completely gone. The only thing he really talks about is family—me, my kids, my grandkids, his great-grandchildren. There's a lesson there. This is a man who had a fabulous career and for whom work always came first. Now he can't even remember it."

Highly Favored

Of all the young women in the world at the time, God chose Mary to be the mother of Jesus. The angel informed her that she was "highly favoured" of God (Luke 1:28).

It is important for mothers to see that they are highly favored of God just by being allowed to be mothers. God favors all of us, of course: He saves us, uses us—a phenomenal privilege and an awesome responsibility to make ourselves available to receive His favor. But godly mothers must especially be highly favored of God.

History shows almost all the greatest workers for God had godly mothers.

As Noah's wife, let mothers instill in their boys God's principles so they can live righteously when all their companions are evil (Genesis 6:1–6).

As Rachel, let mothers train children to avoid the strong temptations of the teen years (Genesis 39).

As Jochabed, let mothers train children to love and serve God above the world's riches (Exodus 6:20; 2:1–10).

As Hannah, let mothers teach children to pray (1 Samuel 1:11, 19–28).

As the Shunammite woman, let mothers teach their children to be at peace (2 Kings 4:26).

As Elisabeth, let mothers teach children to be righteous before God (Luke 1:6).

As Mary, let mothers teach children to obey God (Luke 2:51; John 2).

As the Canaanite woman, let mothers cry to Jesus that He might help their daughters (Matthew 15:21–28).

As Mary, John Mark's mother, let mothers teach children to value worship assemblies (Acts 12:12; 2 Timothy 4:11).

As Lois and Eunice, let mothers teach the value of unpretended faith (2 Timothy 1:5).

"She that bare thee shall rejoice."

PROVERBS 23:25

The Light of the World

At a church program a little boy was to recite a Scripture he had memorized.

When he got in front of the crowd, the sight of hundreds of eyes peering at him caused him to forget his verse. Every line that he had so carefully rehearsed faded, and he stood there unable to utter a single word.

In the front row, his mother was almost as frantic as the little boy. The mother gestured, moved her lips, trying to form the words for the boy, but it did no good. Finally, the mother, in desperation, whispered the opening phrase of the memorized Scripture: "I am the light of the world."

Immediately the child's face lit up and a smile appeared on it as he said with supreme confidence: "My mother is the light of the world!"

Of course, everybody smiled and some laughed out loud. Then they soberly reflected that the boy, in some ways, was not far from wrong. For the mother is the light of the child's world.

"Beloved in the sight of my mother."

PROVERBS 4:3

Who Are the Happiest People on Earth?

An English newspaper asked its readers this question: "Who are the happiest people on earth?" These were the four prize-winning answers:

1. A craftsman or artist whistling over a job well done.
2. A little child building sand castles.
3. A mother, after a busy day, bathing her baby.
4. A doctor who has finished a difficult and dangerous operation and saved a human life.

No millionaires among these, one notices. No kings or tycoons. Wealth and position, no matter how the world strives for them, are not the things most people in their wisdom consider the essential quality of happiness.

Happiness today is that elusive quality much searched for and not often enjoyed. However, Solomon said it long ago:

"For a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life. And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God" (Ecclesiastes 3:12-13). —Ken Dye

Don't Overlook the Obvious

Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson went on a camping trip. In the middle of the night, Holmes woke Watson and said, "Watson, look up and tell me what you see." Watson said, "I see millions and millions of stars." Holmes asked, "And what does that tell you?" Watson replied, "Astronomically, it tells me that there are millions of galaxies and potentially billions of planets. Theologically, it tells me that God is great and that we are small and insignificant. Meteorologically, it tells me that we will have a beautiful day tomorrow. What does it tell you Holmes?" Holmes answered simply, "Somebody stole our tent."

We may wonder why our lives are not going as well as we would like. Have we overlooked the obvious? Have we consulted God's book about how to live? Are we following His way? Are we seeking His blessing?

Let's study together.

"I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word."

How Did You Get That?

A little girl once asked her mother, who had a withered hand, how it came to be deformed.

She replied that it had occurred when she had rescued that little girl from a fire in her crib. "It was for you, my child," she said, "that this poor hand suffered."

To some it might have appeared unsightly, but from that time on to that loving daughter it was a beloved token of her mother's love.

Christ "endured the cross, despising the shame" (Hebrews 12:2), but Christ made it a thing of glory

(1 Corinthians 1:18). Even in heaven the words of praise are, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain" (Revelation 5:12).

What Does the Church Have to Offer Me?

Christian Home church of Christ
463 W State Highway 92
Newton, AL 36352

Infinite peace, knowledge of God, total acceptance, fellowship, encouragement, and salvation are among the things included in the article on the front page. Allen used 1 Peter 2:5&9 to cite a fact that many fail to grasp.

Every Christian is a priest; no longer are we bound to the Levitical order where service and sacrifice had to be presented by another priest. Our Lord ordains each member as a priest with full authority to offer spiritual sacrifices including prayers, songs, contribution, love, and praise. Jesus Christ is our only 'High Priest' and no other mediator is needed. (Hebrews 4:14-16, 9:11-18). There are no 'big or little' Christians. God shows no partiality. Each one has different talent and ability, but their contribution is just as important as others. (Romans 12:4-6, 1 Corinthians 12: 12-27) In addition to salvation for our souls, God gives each of us unlimited rights to service in the greatest organization in the universe.

So what does the church really have to offer that can't be obtained somewhere else? Does it offer a purpose in life, or value, or moral instruction, or encouragement, or social stability? Does it offer guidance for a successful marriage and family? Does it offer peace and contentment in a world where chaos dominates on every side? Does it provide an avenue for the saving of our soul? The answer – it offers all of these and more. That's because the church offers one thing that cannot be obtained anywhere else – the church offers the world Jesus Christ!

Jesus came into the world so that the world could be saved; "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved." (John 3:17, 12:47). Salvation is in Christ; "Therefore I endure all things for the sake of the elect, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory". (2 Timothy 2:10). The church is the body of Christ; "Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually." (1 Corinthians 12:27). Additionally, there is overwhelming evidence that the church is indeed the body of Christ. (1 Corinthians 10:17; Ephesians 1:23, 2:16, 3:6, 4:4, 4:12, 5:23, 5:30; Colossians 1:18, 1:24, 2:19, 3:15). Each Christian is a member of that body and is equipped to add strength and unity of the body by learning the will of our Father and growing, "...till we all come to the unity of the faith and the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, but speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head – Christ..." (Ephesians 4:13-15).

This issue of our bulletin was designed to emphasize the importance of the church, what it offers to those seeking the best in this life and the assurance of the next life. The 'benefit package' is immense. Missing heaven would be unimaginably tragic. "For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?" (Matthew 16:26). Salvation is in Jesus Christ; "Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). Becoming a Christian includes being baptized into His body (1 Corinthians 12:13, Romans 6:3, Galatians 3:27). His body is the church (1 Corinthians 12:27). Therefore, we are saved by being in Christ, in His body, in the church.
